BACK TO HEAVEN

SHANTI NU GAAM

BACK TO HEAVEN-Shanti nu gaam, is situated at a location surprisingly close and yet cleverly tucked-away on the bank of a tranquil lake. A balmy place to rejuvenate amidst nature and it's simplicity.
 The banks's of the peaceful lake are being developed into angelic pastures with lush green vegetation. A genuine attempt has been made to design the area in a way that retains it's wild flora.
 Rich with a variety of plantation, birds, animals, and insects. It is this thrilling experience that we would like you to be a part of.
 The development on the lake front will have beautiful plantations of various kinds, little spaces to sit and connect with nature. Also, a bird-watching trail is being made around the lake. Where you can spot birds like the Indian roller, Golden Oriole, Brahmini duck, Gray partridge, Kingfisher, Egrets, Green bee eater, and many more.
 Chansad is also a proud home to flocks of Home Sparrow which are a very rare sight in our city today.
 This project is an invitation to come and experience nature and our enriched rural culture.
